MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

TUESDAY, DEC. 29, 1903

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Mr. Harry Shaw has been seriously ill at his home in Pittsburg, but is now improving.

—The Star Clothing House after January 1st, 1897, will not extend any credit; cash on receipt of goods.

—H. L. Theis Mandolin and Guitar Club at the Gilman Avenue M. E. church New Year's Eve, Dec. 31st.

—There will be a social at the parlors of the Harmon Congregational Church Tuesday, December 30th. Supper from 7 till 9. Everybody invited. Those promising to earn one dollar will please report.

—Council met in Committee of the Whole Monday evening and adopted plans and specifications for a fire-proof vault for the city hall. The plans were drawn by James F. Foreman, of this city, and provide for a vault six by eight feet, inside measurement, and eight feet high. It will be built of brick and located in the corner of the office of the City Clerk. The walls will be 21 inches thick with a four-inch air space. The iron for support of the ceiling will be T bars weighing 12 pounds to the foot. The estimated cost is $500 and the contract will be let to the lowest bidder. At the meeting a letter received from Engineer Felkel, consulting engineer of the proposed Ohio River bridge, was read to Council and requested that no further action be taken on account of objections which have been expressed to the Post street route. Mr. Felkel stated that the company's charter called for a bridge at Post street and the projectors did not take kindly to the suggestion of locating a highway bridge as far away from the business districts as Fifth street. Council before adjournment resolved to meet in committee of the whole at 9 a. m. Tuesday, at the corner of Fourth and Scammel streets, to consider the grade of the street at that point, which is thought to be too low.

—Mrs. Charles Nelson left Monday for Sistersville, called there by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Wilcox.

—For fresh meats, groceries and produce call on J. W. Wells & Co., Greene street.

—Thaddeus Root, who was arrested by Constable Dye last week for raising a disturbance on a T. & O. C. Ext. train, was fined $10 and costs by Squire Guyton.

—Mr. Frank Sharp, of Pittsburg, is in the city, called here by the illness of his mother.

—Yardmaster Adams of the Z. & O., West Marietta, and Conductor Cross, of the Z. & O., were here to attend the installation of officers of Division 339, O. R. C., yesterday; while here they were the guests of Capt. G. H. Bailey. They returned home on the night train.—Purkersburg Journal.

—A St. Marys item says: Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Noland has taken legal steps that have led the Ohio River Railroad Company to refuse to bring any more liquors to St. Marys C. O. D. This has been a cause of complaint by the citizens a long time. Whenever boys wanted a keg of beer they ordered it C. O. D. and it was sent immediately, and as a result there has been a great deal of drinking among small boys.

—Mrs. Eugene Warner and daughter Bertha, of Zanesville, are guests of Mrs. F. S. Turner.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Krigbaum, who were married last week at Wheeling, are guests of the former's mother in this city.

—Miss Eva Wilson left Monday for her home in Genoa, Neb., after a pleasant visit with friends in Marietta.

—Frank Iseman was fined one dollar and costs for jumping on a moving train contrary to the city ordinance. William Muncy will be tried today for the same offense.

—The famous St. Quintan Quartette is with "Actors' Holiday", Jan. 1st.

—Miss Gertie M. Walters has accepted a position as stenographer with the firm of Coste & Florey. The regular working staff of the firm will consist of C. S. Reese, electrician; C. Dudley Paynter, assistant, and Walter Swain, bookkeeper.

—An alarm was turned in about nine o'clock Monday evening from box 43 and the fire department made a quick run to the Stockade Grocery, owned by L. C. Maxwell, which was filled with smoke and flames. The fire was soon extinguished by the use of one stream of water, but not before considerable damage had been done. A number of barrels, chests and boxes were burned, and a large quantity of groceries received a wetting. Nothing but prompt work saved the building from complete destruction, the ceiling being badly scorched before the flames were subdued. The origin of the fire is a mystery, Mr. Maxwell having closed the store and gone home shortly before it was discovered. The stock of goods is insured with the agencies of C. H. Newton, C. P. Cochran and Roesser & Sturgis. The building is also insured. The loss will reach several hundred dollars.

—J. W. Wells & Co., Greene street, have always on hand a fresh, clean stock of groceries.

—Affairs at the county jail were in somewhat of a turmoil Monday, occasioned by the moving out of Sheriff Dye and the moving in of Sheriff-elect McCallister. Sheriff Dye will occupy his house on Third street.

—Nicholas Reiter, Jr., son of Adam Reiter, the well known plasterer, died Monday evening at his home on Fifth street of typhoid malaria. The deceased was a well known young man and leaves a wife and several children.

—"In Old Kentucky" Pickaninny band with "Actors' Holiday," Jan. 1st.

—Mr. L. A. Skipton, of Zanesville, was circulating among friends in Marietta Monday.

—W. S. Gray, of Waterford, was in the city Monday and a pleasant caller at the Leader office.

—Clean, fresh meats and groceries at J. W. Wells & Co.'s, Greene street.

—In Common Pleas Court Monday Ella McDonald was granted a divorce from her husband, James McDonald, on the ground of cruelty. Court adjourned to Thursday, when the motion for a new trial in the case of Frank Devol, who was convicted of shooting with intent to wound, will be heard.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartlett, Muskingum, are the pleased parents of a fine son, who came to bless their home Monday afternoon.

—The Cambridge Sun has the following: It is reported that Enon Dye has resigned his position with the C. & M. Ry. to take charge of the electric light plant at Marietta. Mr. Dye was one of the best passenger engineers on the road and has many friends in this city who wish him success in his new undertaking.

—Underwood & Ludey are new telephone subscribers—No. 233.

—Mr. Fred Moore is at Taylorsville, Pa., visiting friends.

—It is not often that a fraternal order is favored with so large and influential a body of converts as was that presented before the altar of Marietta Lodge No. 65 Ancient Order of United Workmen Monday evening, and was the result of the efficient efforts of Mr. J. J. Fultz, Acting Deputy Grandmaster of said order in Ohio. The class elected and mostly present and receiving the degrees was composed of the following well known persons: H. Strecker, Hon. C. S. Dana, F. L. Reed, C. W. Eddy, M. D., Jno. Bickert, B. E. Guyton, C. C. Chamberlain, O. J. Fuller, Rev. E. A. Coll, C. A. Ludey, L. H. Cisl, M. D., H. Reckard, C. Anders, Wm. Hoon, C. L. Miller, G. —William Beach, who was thrown from his horse near Bellville, W. Va., Thursday night, died Sunday night from the effects of his injuries. He was thrown upon the frozen ground with such force that his overcoat, coat and shirt were stripped from his back. His skull was crushed in, this injury ultimately causing his death. The horse which the unfortunate young man was riding fell so violently that it has since died from resulting injuries. Young Beach was about twenty years of age and unmarried.

—James Hadley, of Stanleyville, an elderly Scotchman well known throughout the county, died at his home Sunday, the 27th, of stomach trouble, after an illness of several months. The Ideal Panacea.
James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial Bottles Free at W. H. Syer's Drug Store.

It is hard to tell sometimes whether the shopper or the saleswoman feels the effect of shopping the most. Even the pleasant part of it involves standing, waiting, weariness for both of them and more or less hurry and neglect of regular meals and regular habits. This leads to dyspepsia or constipation or both; they are two links in the chain of indigestion; another link is biliousness; headache is another; then follows backache, dizziness, an irritable temper and the "blues," all links of one chain binding down your energies and making life a burden. The way to throw off the whole trouble at once is to put the bowels and stomach into condition again. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do this quicker, more comfortably and more naturally than any other remedy in the world. They actually cure constipation so it stays cured; you don't become a slave to their use; they strengthen the intestines to do their own work, tone the stomach and gently stimulate the liver. They are mild but sure, like Nature itself. Don't let any druggist give you a gripping pill. Insist on having Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser gives more plain useful information about the human body and all the ailments to which it is subject than any other single book in the English language. It is really a medical encyclopedia in one volume, a large heavy book of 1000 pages, with over 300 illustrations. The outlay of money, time and effort in producing this great book was paid for by the sale of the first edition of 50,000 copies at $1.50 each; and the profit has been used in publishing the present edition of half-a-million copies to be sent absolutely without price to all who will remit the small charge of 21 cents in one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only.
